

Electrifying acoustic and soaring vocals are what you get from a live performance by Chad Shuttleworth. Not only does he make classics song his own, he breathes new and energetic life into them with power and charisma. When Chad is on stage, he comes into his own and you'll catch a glimpse of this first-class performer and his world of music.

With a stage show that leaves you wanting more to his ability to draw and keep an audience, this young talented performer and songwriter is set to be one of Australia's finest.
